Effect of illegal immigrants from Bangladesh on internal security

986. SHRI RAMDAS AGARWAL:
SHRI DARA SINGH:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government is aware that a large scale illegal infiltration from Bangladesh has made India's internal security more fragile and that cross-border terrorism has now logistic support within the country;

(b) whether some of illegal immigrants made up "sleeper cells" at several places in India which Government prefers to consider them as "Economic Refugees"; and

(c) if so, whether Government now feel necessity of re-introduction of POTA as those who commit terrorist crime in country have no justification for mercy and people believe that India is exasperated with this onslaught of terrorism?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRIMATI V. RADHIKA SELVI): (a) The involvement of Bangladeshi national in terrorist acts in India with the support of some local elements has come to notice of the Government. The Government is also aware of illegal infiltration from Bangladesh. However, it may not be appropriate to suggest that large scale illegal infiltration from Bangladesh has made India's internal security more fragile or that cross-border terrorism has now logistic support within the country.

(b) Available inputs do not confirm that some illegal immigrants have constituted "sleeper cells" at various place in India nor is there any proposal to treat illegal immigrants as "Economic Refugees".

(c) The Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967 was amended in 2004 to incorporate various provisions to make it a comprehensive anti-terror law. The Government, however, reviews its policies and steps to combat terrorism, including the relevant laws. So as to calibrate it to respond to the challenge of terrorism in an effective manner.
